

The richness of the heart

There were two lovers,
One poor, one rich,
He knew he shouldn't love her,
But she was his greatest wish.

Many tried to keep them apart,
"Money is everything in life",
But love only follows the heart,
And he made her his wife.

Now they are happily together,
With beautiful and dreamy children,
They only have one treasure,
Their love was one in a trillion.
